

LITERARY CHARACTER DAY

Sacred Heart School is excited to announce that Literary Character Day will be held on Monday, October 31, 2016! This special day's purpose is to celebrate, draw attention to and promote the importance of reading. Each child has the opportunity to dress up to look like a character from a favorite book. Absolutely NO WEAPONS allowed (swords, light sabers, knives, etc.), or ghosts, goblins, zombies, witches, etc. Acceptable characters are Saints or characters from books such as Winnie the Pooh, Disney Stories, Charlotte's Web, etc. If you are unsure of a character, please ask your child's teacher. The following is a list of possible characters/books that you may find helpful. All characters MUST be approved by your child's teacher.

This is a Literary Character Day. Your support in helping to choose an appropriate character/outfit is most appreciated.

Parents are invited and encouraged to join our Literary Character Day as well (with or without costume). Come and observe the Harvest Festival, sponsored by the Senior Student Council, from 1:15-2:15 p.m., and the Parade of Literary Characters on the playground at 2:30 p.m.

We encourage you to help make October 31st a fun and memorable day for your child by participating in Literary Character Day 2016! Help us to promote the joy of reading!
